

UoF Graduate Scholarships

Pursuant to HE Iraqi MOHESR Minister instructions, and supervised by distinguished University of Fallujah President, Professor Dr. Sabah Ibrahim Hammadi, PhD, the University of Fallujah is pleased to announce life-changing scholarship opportunities for 2023-2024 interested foreign graduate applicants.

Foreign applicants are subject to Iraqi MOHESR regulations set by a UoF-designated admission committee. The admission committee, whenever applicable, adopts a competitive compromise among each program applicants. Following a due review of submitted applications, the admission committee shall announce top-rated candidates.

Core Graduate Admission and Eligibility Requirements:

- Home-Country MoF-Certified degree transcripts.
- Iraqi-MoF or Iraqi Attache'-Certified degree transcripts
- Foreign Master applicant must retain a minimum of 65% to be eligible for the Master program application.
- Foreign PhD Applicant must retain a minimum of 70% to be eligible for the PhD program application.
- Foreign Master applicant must be a maximum of 45 years old during the time of the Master application.
- Foreign PhD applicant be a maximum of 50 years old during the time of the PhD application.
- A valid passport that is of a two-year validity upon the preliminary admission.
- A presentable research proposal.
- Two recommendation letters offered by two full professors in the area of related specialty.
- Personal IDs.
- An in-writing home-country-issued non-criminal statement.
- An in writing Home-country-issued medical statement.
- Postgraduate applicants must provide an in-writing pledge that he\She must abide by all Iraq-set regulations and guidelines.